Landscape sector

Landscape employees must meet the Progressive Wage Model wage and training requirements for their employees. This applies to all landscape employees who are Singapore citizens or permanent residents.

What is it

The Progressive Wage Model (PWM) for landscape maintenance employees was developed by the Tripartite Cluster for Landscape Industry (TCL). It features:

- Training requirements that tap on the Skills Framework for Landscape [\[1\]](#). This ensures that workers have the skills they need to carry out their jobs.
- Progressive wages set at each level. This ensures that workers are paid wages that correspond to their skills and productivity.

The PWM is a registration condition for NParks' Landscape Company Register [\[2\]](#) (LCR).

Who it covers

The PWM requirements are mandatory. They cover all Singapore citizens and permanent residents who are employed in outsourced landscape maintenance jobs by landscape companies on the LCR, or in-house landscape maintenance employees in firms that hire foreign workers.

Employers are encouraged to adopt the PWM's principles for their foreign landscape maintenance employees by upgrading their skills and implementing productivity-based wage progression pathways.

Training requirements

Employers must ensure that their Singapore citizen and permanent resident landscape maintenance employees meet the PWM training requirements.

- Outsourced landscape workers: The required number of modules from the approved list :
 - Landscape Supervisor: Assistant Landscape Supervisor + 3 modules
 - Assistant Landscape Supervisor: Landscape Technician + 3 modules
 - Landscape Technician: Landscape Worker + 3 modules
 - Landscape Worker: 3 modules
- In-house landscape workers: Any 1 WSQ course  or 1 in-house training programme

The in-house training programme must be guided by training objectives, training modality, key training tasks and training duration to meet the training requirements. When required, employers are expected to show supporting documentation on their in-house training programme and records of workers who attended the trainings.

On-the-job training can be counted towards the in-house training programme if it fulfils these requirements.

As an employer, you will benefit from your landscape maintenance employees' increased productivity and ability to provide higher quality landscape maintenance services.

Raising annual leave entitlement for outsourced PWM workers

From 2029 onwards, the minimum annual leave entitlement for outsourced PWM workers will be increased from 7 days to 10 days. The enhancement will be implemented in phases and will support outsourced workers across the cleaning, security, landscape, lift and escalator, and waste management sectors. The implementation timeline will be discussed by the respective sectoral Tripartite Clusters, allowing employers and service buyers time to plan for the changes and manage operational and cost impact.
